To whom it may concern:

As I write this we are nearing completion of our fourth Jerry and Lynn Jones Marriage Matters Seminar and IT IS BETTER THAN EVER! Jerry and Lynn continue to add new material to their presentations... material gleaned from their research, their own experiences as husband and wife, and their observations of others in counseling sessions and in life. Their stuff is fresh and up-to-date no matter how many times you have heard them... and it is incredibly powerful.

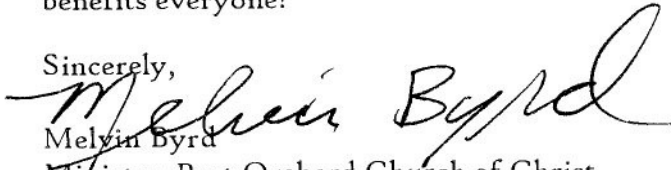

I have never attended, nor do I know of any marriage seminar or workshop as authentic as the Jones' Marriage Matters Seminar. Our congregation and our community have been richly blessed each time they've come. Good marriages have been made better, troubled marriages have found peace, new marriages have been given a solid foundation, wounded hearts have come to healing, and couples dreaming about marriage have been given tools with which to dream and plan and make good decisions.

If you think I'm giving too much credit to a seminar, then I encourage you to find and attend a Jerry and Lynn Jones Marriage Matters Seminar. Church leaders, elders, preachers, if you are looking for something that is guaranteed to impact your church and your community for good, I urge you to consider hosting this seminar in your church.

I don't know of much on this earth today that is more important than marriage and family. And I don't know of many things on earth today that are being battered and beaten the way marriage and family is. And I don't know of much that needs and deserves help quite as much as marriage and families. Whatever we can do to strengthen the family and keep marriages on the right track is worth doing whatever the cost.

But know also that the marriage relationship is not the only one benefited by this seminar. The things taught by the Joneses are applicable to every relationship in life. This seminar benefits everyone!

Sincerely,

Melvin Byrd
